

SEATTLE POST-INTELLIGENCER

http://seattlepi.nwsourc.com/local/193738\_ebriefs05.html

Local education briefs

Tuesday, October 5, 2004

SEATTLE POST-INTELLIGENCER STAFF AND NEWS SERVICES

Four seniors win Nordstrom scholarships

SEATTLE -- Nordstrom on Thursday will play host to its annual "Celebration of Cultural Diversity," an awards ceremony recognizing four Seattle high school seniors for their scholastic achievements. (Editor's Note: The original version of this story gave an incorrect date.)

The 2004 scholarship recipients are: Nicole Iwuoha, Nathan Hale High School; Sukie Jefferson, Garfield High School; Sandra Li, Cleveland High School; and Lisa Wu, Franklin High School. Each has been awarded $10,000 scholarships.

For the past 15 years, Seattle-based Nordstrom has recognized local individuals for their efforts to promote cultural harmony in the Puget Sound-area community. Nordstrom started the program in 1990 in honor of Black History Month.

A committee made up of educators, business leaders, community volunteers, past recipients and representatives from Nordstrom chose the scholarship recipients.